My Father's Love

It is in You I find my name.
Once spoken will suffice to give me hope that I can live my life not bound by other's definitions.

It is in You I find my life.
Not in pursuit of affirmation given to make me feel of worth, depending on the source from which it came.

It is in You I know my call.
And that not based on my achievements.
For I will surly fall someday, and then, outside of Your embrace my vision would be shattered.

My place is here, my eyes are fixed on Yours.
Seeing in your gaze a Father's perfect love,
expressed in perfect sacrifice of Son.
My arms reach up to take You to myself,
confident that You have placed me here in your embrace.
I need no other name than that You quietly speak.
To know My Father's love- it is enough for me!

Break My Heart O God

Ruth Fazal

♩ = 50

1. Break my heart, O God and take it in Your hand; And make it beat with love for You and the hurting in our land.

Break my heart, O God as Yours was broken for me when You laid Your life down on that cross, O break my heart O God.

2. Break my heart, O God and make it fully Yours
 Filled with Your compassion Lord, to reach out to the lost
 Lost within the pain of walking all alone
 Let me bring your heart to them
 O break my heart, O God!

3. Break my heart, O God and place it in Your fire
 O let me be a life poured out to Jesus, my desire
 Break my heart O God so I can feel Your pain
 So I can reach out with Your love
 O break my heart, O God,

You Are My Father

Father.
Tenderness describes Your very nature.
All that I am longing for.
You draw me so close
And tell me of this love that will not let me go...
You are my Father.

Faithful Lover
Even in the darkest places
You let me wander till I'm weary of it.
Thinking foolishly to light my own path.
But You will not let me go...
You are my Father.

Embracing Arms of Love
When all around would threaten my security
You beckon me to come into the safest place of all-
Held now by Your nail pierced hands.
You do not let me go...
You are my Father.

Great Protector,
You call me now to trust Your sheltering place.
Peering from the safety of your arms,
Why would I struggle?
You will not let me go...
You are my Father.

Relentless Love.
Your smile ignites a longing in my heart,
Speaking wordlessly of passion felt.
Heart to heart...
You are my Father.

Fully Satisfied In You

Beauty far beyond all knowledge yet within,
the deepest kind of knowing-
You are here!
Complete in Your Oneness
You long to be one with me.

Full of radiant, dazzling light
Which blinds me in its purity.
Though I may not see You now
or ever in this life,
The presence of Your burning heart is felt so near, that without sight
I am fully satisfied in You.

Passion now so deeply felt,
A yearning never known before.
No word sufficient to describe the stirrings in my heart
Toward You, my God.
My whole being aches,
My trembling heart cries out for You,
yet I am deeply satisfied to find my home within Your own.

Simply being here with You is all I ask.
I cannot see,
Perhaps I never will
But You are here in me
And I am fully satisfied in You.

Extravagance

Precious?
Yes, I know.
Too costly to be wasted?
No! It's here I disagree.
Who else deserves the wealth of this poor heart?
The price denying other pleasures? Certainly!
But what is wealth if stored up and not spent?

Extravagant, some may say.
It should have been spent on the poor!
I could have spent it there, for sure,
But my warmed heart is captured by the One who gave His life to make me His.
Can I not give Him mine without reproof?
Fragrant. Let it be!
O, may this sweetness, wafting through the air
Awaken sense of many who will linger long enough to taste and see and know that this is not a waste but simply love, poured out and spent.

There is no other One on whom to lavish all affection.
You ask me why I love in this abandoned way?
I cannot truly say,
except I know my heart has been awakened .

The Lover comes to love His own,
And I am His, and I am known.
I will pour out,
And I will spend all that I have
To live in His embrace
Forever loved, and giving love.
Fragrant, extravagant and precious!

O bright and early rising Sun
Meet me here!
In the darkness of my longing
Shine Your light.

Breaking now upon the horizon
Always You come
Though sometimes hidden by clouds
Still You are there
Coming up
Rising
As a Bridegroom coming forth from Your chamber.

It is a new day
Yet forever ancient;
Seen from before all things began.
What triumph!
Never to be defeated
Here is Your joy
O beautiful Risen One!

Into The Stillness

There is a quiet place.
It is in the choice I make to be still.
There is a deeper place,
unseen as yet
in which the secrets most cherished are held.
As yet unknown.
As yet unfulfilled.
Connecting our hearts, He takes us there as we are still.
Without stillness
No depth.
Without quiet
No word.

So take me now,
I come into that place.

And calling me away
I feel the anguish as I long to go
But in my fear I stay.
And so I fix my eyes on You
And see you dance, and feel the thrill
As gazing on Your form I see
I have no need to be afraid...

3. Your strength is flowing into me
As I allow my heart to feel
The tender love, the warm embrace
In which You carry me.
And so I come, and so I dance,
On hills of myrrh and frankincense
Enfolded in unending grace
I choose to come and run the race...

Until The Day Breaks

Until the day breaks-
How long is that Lord?
And the shadows flee-
Will that time ever come?
I want to leap upon the mountains,
skip upon the hills,
but I am slow of heart
and although I long to dance,
I ache.

My strength, it seems to ebb away.
I know that in this weakness Your strength is seen and that in Your loving eyes, this injury is sweet.
But truly I am tired.
My heart is soaring,
but my feet are as though in chains.
Cut me free!
Release every part of me to soar with You.

And now I see You gently come.
You lift me up into Your arms.
How tenderly you hold me!
Soothingly, You stroke away my fears.
And as Your eyes and mine are locked in loving gaze,
I hear Your voice speak softly as You whisper to my heart
“You can leap and dance with Me
For I will hold you in this your time of greatest weakness.
Do not ever say “I cannot come”
For the dance is wrapped in Me and Me alone”

And now I make my way to the Mountain of Myrrh held in Your arms.
Each step You take instills new strength in me.
My only choice; to be with You wherever You are.
And so
Until the day breaks
I will go.

A Bride is Won

The cry goes up to Father from the Son

"O give me one to love with lover's passion;

Love, as yet unseen

beyond the perfect union hid between Us"

A wondrous act as yet unimaginable to watching eyes unfolds.

With perfect understanding of the cost involved

The Son of Man bursts forth into a wondering, waiting universe.

"I will go and win my Love.

A price to pay?

A bitter cup to drink?

No depth of pain,

No bitterness will hold me back.

I will endure the worst of all

To win a Bride to share My heart"

And so He came, and still He comes with arms outstretched.

Searching for those who will choose His embrace above all others.

"What longing passion fills My heart within.

A bitter cross endured, to know your suffering.

Such tender feelings are my sustenance in agonising separation from My Father's side.

Rejection known, that you, My beloved, had thought was yours alone.

O yes, be sure, I know it well!

In this, the blackest and the darkest hour,

My only thought is you, so fair.

What vision fills my mind!

Sustaining Me in this unknowing.

'Tis you I see,

That leans so hard upon My side.

"Tis you I see,

My joy and My extreme delight,

My Bride"

I'll go!
It doesn't matter where-because You're there!
I'll come
Just say the word-
it's all I need to hear.

Trouble!
What do I care?
For You are here.
Your hand speaks with authority
To calm the fiercest storm.
You do not sleep
But merely are at rest.
In total confidence.

Such confidence is slowly to become
The strength in which my heart may also be at rest.
My hand held tight in Yours,
To come and go,

Awaken Our Hearts

O give us eyes to see
beyond the senses
Which hold us, earthbound
Unable to behold the beauty before us.

Our response,
So tightly wrapped within the confines of our fears;
The narrow hearted vision
In which we choose to live.

O break us free!
To dare to feel.
To dance the dance of great Creator
Set our feet toward the places where You run
And let us go there
With abandonment and greatest joy.

Romance our hearts
And move us into spacious places
without boundaries built from fear.
Draw us ever deeper
'til there is no more turmoil
As we regard all things beautiful.

O give us eyes to see
And take us now beyond the place of drawing back.
Your love is stronger than the deepest longings of our hearts
Let us go there
With all fervency
Awaken our hearts to beauty.

so full of love.
I long to lift my heart

There's nothing more that I can bring than all the songs that lie within.
I don't know how to tell You in the way I really want to - O God
You are worthy
You are mighty.
But is this enough to say?
Can this express the worthiness and strength that make You who You are?
Is there a word in all the earth to really give you praise?
I think not.
How could such beauty be expressed as I have seen and felt inside Your heart?
And so I stand here speechless
and from deep within I cry
"I love You!"

To the lowest place to meet earth.
From Your side, it's pouring down
The grace of God is coming!
Let me flow in Your River of love
Cause me to go to the lowest place.
To be poured out like you, O God
Carried in this River of Grace.

I hear the voice of many waters,
Like the sound of mighty thunder
Crying out to the lowest places
“Grace has come, and it comes to you.”
Let Your voice be clear through me
Crying to the forgotten places,

Coming in His River of Grace.”
